

Mark Lloyd

Partner, Waltons & Morse LLP

Mark qualified in 1994 and from the beginning of his training has had heavy involvement in marine work. He joined Waltons from Sinclair Roche & Temperley in early 1997 and became a Partner in July 2001. He now heads Walton's Wet Shipping Practice and specialises in Marine Insurance, Salvage and GA matters.

He is secretary of the Admiralty Solicitors Group ("ASG"), representing (currently) 22 of the leading maritime law firms in the UK and seek to promote and preserve standards in the practice of maritime law in England; a supporting member of the LMAA; a Subscriber Member of the Association of Average Adjusters; and a member of the BMLA and BILA. The ASG (and separately a number of member firms) are members of and fully behind/supportive of Maritime London.

Mark has also worked in (and visits regularly) Asia having worked in Hong Kong, Singapore and Vietnam with considerable contacts in the area. He has many years' experience in the marine field on both the Cargo and hull side including issues of jurisdiction, limitation, collision, unseaworthiness, ISM, piracy and other issues. Mark acts primarily for insurers (including Lloyds Syndicates and the company market) worldwide upon liability and coverage issues, including drafting policy wordings.
