

Mark Jackson
Chief Executive Officer, The Baltic Exchange

Mark Jackson was appointed the Chief Executive Officer of the Baltic Exchange in January 2017. He had previously been a director of the Baltic Exchange, joining the board in 2004, and served as its Chairman 2009-2012. The London headquartered Baltic Exchange is an international provider of trusted benchmarks, enabling risk management for the bulk shipping industry and a membership organisation providing dispute resolution and escrow services. The Baltic's 650 shipowning, chartering and shipbroking company members adhere to a code of conduct and ethical way of doing business.

He was previously a director of dry bulk shipowner and operator AM Nomikos & Son (UK) Ltd and the Commercial Officer for the Athens based AM Nomikos Group. Mark has over 40 years of shipping industry experience and started his shipping career as an apprentice in 1981 in Sydney, Australia. After 18 years working as a shipbroker in Sydney, Hong Kong, New York and London, he joined A.M. Nomikos (UK) in 1998.

Mark has been a director of Maritime London since 2017, and in December 2022 he was appointed Vice Chair.

He lives in London and is married with three children.
