

SECURING YOUR SHIPS FROM EXTERNAL DISRUPTIONS: SAFETY AND DECARBONISATION PERSPECTIVES

the 2024 edition of the GREEK-BRITISH SHIPPING FORUM, held as part of Posidonia 2024 on Tuesday, 4 June 15:30-19:15 at The Book Castle, Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center

15:30 Registration & refreshments

16:00 Welcome remarks

Harry Theochari OBE, Chair, Maritime London

Keynote Addresses

16:10 H.E. Matthew Lodge, His Majesty's Ambassador to the Hellenic Republic

16:20 Minister, UK Government TBC

16:30 Session 1: Ensuring Safety in a Heightened-Risk Environment

We hear much about the commercial implications of global trade disruption, as a consequence of the well-publicised choke points in key shipping routes. However, in a heightened-risk environment, how can the industry work smarter to ensure the safety of assets and importantly seafarers? This panel discussion will be moderated by Jos Standerwick, Chief Executive, Maritime London.

17:40 Coffee break

17:55 Presentation by Sarah Leonard, Head, UK Shipping Concierge

18:00 Session 2: Tramp Shipping - the Elephant in the Decarbonisation Room?

The flexibility of the spot market is central to the global trade in commodities and has created one of the purest marketplaces the world has ever seen. However, the structure does not lend itself to the collaboration between cargo interests, shipowners, and terminal operators, often cited as a key driver for the shipping industry's decarbonisation. This panel discussion will explore how decarbonisation will alter the market dynamics and what practical steps can be taken to align with IMO mid-term measures. This panel discussion will be moderated by Richard Meade, Editor in Chief, Lloyd's List.

19:10 Closing remarks

Evita Souri, Country Manager, British Embassy in Athens/Department for Business & Trade

19:30 British Ambassador's Evening Reception

held at the Lighthouse, Stavros Niarchos Foundation Cultural Center