

Philippa Charlton

Chief Marketing Officer

Philippa Charlton is the Chief Marketing Officer of Lloyd's Register and member of the Executive Leadership team. Philippa is also a Director of LR's Maritime Decarbonisation Hub and MERC, their Maritime Emissions Reduction Centre (Athens).

Prior to joining LR, Philippa was CMO of Averda, a global waste management company operating across multiple industry sectors in recycling, waste to energy and engineering projects in both the public and private sector.

Before that she was the Group Marketing Director of a global security business whose divisions included PGI Cyber which specialised in cyber security reliance for Corporate and International Governments and PVI, one of the world's leading Maritime Security companies. Her earlier career was spent in the Paper and Plastics industry in multiple international roles in both private and public businesses.